

Teri: Let us continue as one expression of God's people. + Father,
Son, Holy Spirit. Amen.

Teri: May the Love of God, the care and compassion of the Incarnation, and the Fire of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Penitential Rite

Richard Rohr reminds us, "that Jesus identifies forgiveness with breathing, the one thing that we have done constantly since we were born and will do until we die." (Even if, or most especially if, we are on oxygen!!!) He says God's forgiveness is like breathing. Forgiveness then is not apparently something God does; it is who God is. God can do no other. Knowing this, we turn to our God....breathing in God's love.....breathing out peace.....

Creating Breath, your Breath ignites a holy fire in the world. Lord have mercy.... Lord have mercy

Incarnational Breath, you are the Breath within our breath. Christ have mercy.... Christ have mercy

Spirit Breath, breathe in us, O Breath of God. Lord have mercy..... Lord have mercy

May our loving God shower grace upon us, forgive us our sins, heal our brokenness, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

Opening Prayer

Teri: Let us pray....

Spirit of God, You show us the sacredness of all the earth and all her creatures. You reveal Yourself in breath, fire, wind, water, and dirt. May we celebrate with burning hearts Your gifts within us and the warmth of Your passionate love in the outpouring of Your grace everywhere. May we join with others in works of justice and peace for our world. In Jesus' name we pray: Amen.

First Reading:

Pam: Our First Reading is from Acts (2:1-13).

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. Suddenly, there came from the sky a sound like the rush of a strong, driving wind, and it filled the entire house where the disciples were staying. And then, what seemed to be tongues of fire appeared to them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit enabled them.

Now there were devout Judeans from every nation staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, a crowd gathered, and they were bewildered for each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking to us Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in our own native language? Residents from all known regions, near and far, both Judeans and converts to Judaism, in our own languages we hear them speaking about the marvels of God." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, sneered and said, "They have had too much new wine."

This has been a reading from Acts Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Pam

Our Second Reading is from the Letter to the Galatians (5:13-14, 16a, 18, 22-24, 26, 25)

You were called to freedom, beloved; but do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence. Use your freedom to serve one another in love. For the whole law is summed up in one commandment: Love your neighbor as yourself.

Live by the spirit, I say! If you are led by the Spirit, then you have already fulfilled the law. Its regulations have no hold on you.

The fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things, there is no law.

Those who belong to Jesus the Christ have crucified all that is selfish and ignorant, - all that is not of love. Let us not become arrogant, competing against one another, envying one another. If we live by the Spirit, let us be guided by the Spirit!

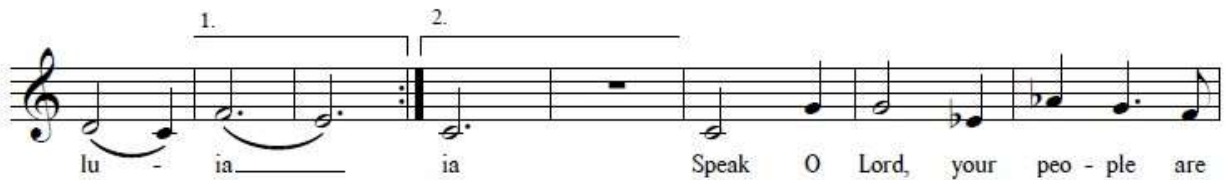

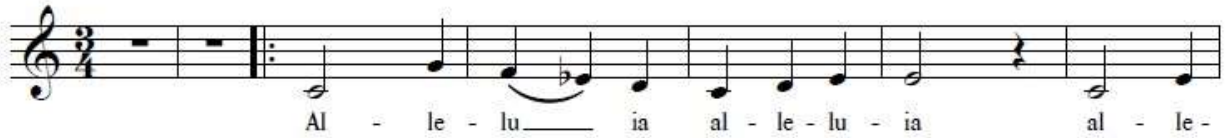

This has been a reading from the Letter to the Galatians.

Thanks be to God.

Final REFRAIN

Teri:

The Risen Christ be with you all. And also with you.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John (15:26-27 + 20:19-22).

Glory to you, O God+

After I depart, the Helper, the Advocate, will come. I will send the Helper to you from our Loving God. She is the Spirit of Truth, proceeding from the mouth of God. She is Wisdom, God's own words upon God's very breath. She will testify about me. You also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

... On the evening of the first day of the week, the day Jesus was raised, the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the religious authorities. Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Jesus then showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the risen Christ. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As our Loving God has sent me, so I send you." After saying this, he breathed on them, saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

The Gospel of our God

Praise to you, Jesus the Christ.

Homily

Prayers of the People - Pam

Response: Holy Wisdom, be with us. Holy Wisdom, be with us.

For our world and its leaders, that the Holy Spirit may breathe compassion and generosity into their hearts, and so that particular care may be given to the marginalized in communities across the globe. We pray: Holy Wisdom, be with us.

For all Christians across the globe who are celebrating Pentecost this weekend, especially for our sisters and brothers of Bethlehem Lutheran. That the Holy Spirit may breathe into all our hearts and inspire us to find what unites us and work together to create a world where Christ's justice, peace, and love flourish. We pray: Holy Wisdom, be with us.

For those who are sick, and for those who care for the sick. For those who feel isolated and alone. For those who struggle. (We pray especially for _____.) That the Holy Spirit may breathe God's love in and through them each day. We pray: Holy Wisdom, be with us.

For those who have died, (especially _____). For those who grieve and mourn the loss of friends, family, and companions. That the Holy Spirit may gather their souls into Her gentle, loving embrace. We pray: Holy Wisdom, be with us.

Pam : Fr. Teri will now read the prayers that have been typed in the comments (PAUSE until Teri tells you to go on.) For these and for all the prayers we share through our hearts, we pray: Holy Wisdom, be with us.

Pam : In addition, Prayer Partners will be available after Mass here in the Sanctuary by the back altar. For those at home, or those who have a prayer to share during the week, you can email our Prayer Companion Team at prayercompanionteam@lightofchristecc.org and someone will reach out to you. These prayer ministries welcome and invite you, in confidence, to share your concerns in more detail or depth, or even to pray for you when you can't find the words.

Liturgy of the Eucharist:

Teri: Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation, through your goodness we have this bread and this wine to place on your table. Work of earth and human hands. May these become our spiritual food and drink. Blessed be God forever.

Teri: Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation, through your goodness we have these gifts to place on your table. They represent our entire lives, and all that we have to offer. These gifts have traveled through purses, pockets, and even the mail. May these become the Light of Christ in your world. Blessed be God forever.

Teri: Pray my sisters and brothers, my family, that these our gifts, our lives may continue to be blessed by our Loving God.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at our hands, for the praise and glory of God's name, for our good and the good of all God's world.

Teri: The peace of our God be with you all. And also with you.

Teri: Open up our hearts. We open them up to God.

Teri: Let us give thanks to our Loving God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Teri: Divine Flame of Love, your glowing embers dance in our hearts. Your passionate presence kindles our souls. You purify us with the searing truth that ignites our spirits. Today we celebrate your nearness and remember your Pentecost promise and presence.

Beloved Creator, You have affirmed us as your beloved creation. You have energized us to keep on keeping on – working for justice and peace in the world, and spreading the news that all are welcome in your tent which you have pitched over all of our tables and gathered us together as one. We are grateful, and together with all of the holy choirs of heaven and earth we are glad to say:

THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Teri: God, Goodness of the World, you prepare tables before us. Send your Holy Spirit upon us gathered around these tables throughout your world and gathered as your Body that we may become signs of your love and transforming work in the world. + Let also your Spirit come upon these gifts of bread and wine before us to make them holy so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our brother, Jesus the Christ.

Today, we gather to remember that on the night before he died, Jesus ate with his followers and his friends. We recall how he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it, he broke it, and gave it to them saying - "Take this all of you and eat it. This is my body which will be given up for you."

We remember also, that on the night before Jesus died, He took the cup filled with wine, and after giving thanks, passed it to his friends, saying, "Take this all of you and drink from it. This is the cup of my blood. The blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Teri:

As we celebrate this memory of Jesus, let us pray that we, like all the people gathered in the Upper Room on the First Pentecost will burn with love for the God of Surprises who breaks the bread of life and pours the cup of overflowing grace over all of creation.

May our hearts be joyful on our journey as we dream new dreams and see new visions. May we recognize Christ present in every person everywhere, broken and blessed and shared. Every day as we care for each other, may we encounter the God who dwells with us anew. May we become Spirit-Fire as we fan the flames of love over the entire cosmos.

Be with our family and friends, the young and the old, the sick and the dying. Bless. Protect. Heal. Encourage. And comfort all who need your grace, O God. We remember our chosen shepherds in our prayer as well, especially Bishop Kae and Bishop Paul. May your blessed fire re-ignite within them a spark of imagination and renewal.

May all creation dance in your presence. May we become one heart, one mind, one spirit with everything. May we turn away from efforts to dominate anyone or anything. May we see your face in the stars, the wind, the sun, and the moon.

May your love kindle our friendship with all the saints, including Mary the mother of Jesus, Mary of Magdala, John the evangelist, our patron saints, and the countless friends and ancestors who have died in the hope of rising again. May we one day dwell with them in love with You forever and ever.

Teri: Together now, we say.....

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours all loving God, forever and ever.

HAIL MARY/LORD'S PRAYER

Teri: Let us join hearts together, a symbol of how God is circling the world right now and prayer words that have been prayed for centuries.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed are thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us (children), now and at the hour of our death, Amen.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil... For the Kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion:

Teri: Let us pray...

O God, In the name of the Fire and Flame and Light, may this meal that we share today be a spark within us, fanning the flames of your love. Fuel our hearts with your Divine energy. Thank you for walking hand in hand with us on our journey. Breathe new urgency into our love of life. In your Holy Name we pray: Amen.

Teri: The Love of God be with you.

ALL: And also with you.

Teri: Let us open our hearts and ask for God's blessing.

May the fire of God's love ignite our hearts in love; may the Flame of God radiate through us; may the Brightness of truth and justice burn within us forever. And may God bless us all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Teri: Please stay after Mass for some ice cream provided by Parish Council. Please repeat our sending forth after me:

We are Light of Christ....

Let us go forth as such.....

Loving and serving God.....

As we get to love and serve in God's world.

Thanks be to God.....
